THE King of Schnorrers, Grotesques and Fantasies, another clever book by J. Zangwill, with ninety-eight illustrations by Phil May, George Hutchinson, Y. H. Townsend, and others. The volume is composed of one fairly long (from which it derives its title) and several shorter stories, which one cannot help wishing were longer; two of the latter, The Semi-Sentimental Dragon and A Double Barrelled Ghost, both illustrated by Phil May, are more than usually humorous. From Mr. Zangwill's previous writings we know him to be a past master of epigram, but in The King of Schnorrers he has surpassed himself. To be had handsomely bound in cloth at Jacobsen's well-known bookstore, 499 Florida, corner Lavalle.

Rebellion in Bechuanaland.

The Sultan in a conciliatory mood.

Suicide of Barney Barnato.

The Jubilee preparations.

Wreck of a British steamer.

New York, 15th—The steamer Dauntless, chartered by the Cuban Committee, sailed again from Key West to-day with an expedition for Cuba. The cruiser Marblehead has left in pursuit of her.

London, 15th—The latest accounts of the suicide of Barny Barnato say that it occurred just as the steamer Scott was entering Madeira port. He was drunk at the time. It took several hours to find the corpse, which has been brought here for interment.

Rome, 15th—The Deputies resumed the debate on the Budget to-day. The Minister of Marine, Admiral Brin, asked the House not to reduce the Navy, and bagged for an extra credit of 17 millions of lire, to be spread over several years.

Tangiers, 15th—The murderer of the German merchant Hoesler was executed (shot) to-day in front of the German Legation. There was an enormous crowd of the populace present.

London, 15th—A telegram from Colombo reports the wreck of the British steamer Sultan of Djeddah off Socotora Island. The crew and most of the passengers were drowned.

London, 15th—Later telegrams from Colombo say that ten of the natives on board the steamer Sultan of Djeddah were drowned, but that the rest were saved by a passing vessel.

Paris, 15th—The Deputies voted to-day, in spite of the opposition of the Finance Minister, an amendment to the Bill renewing the privileges of the Bank of France, by 363 to 230 votes, prohibiting the Governor of the Bank to be either a Senator or Deputy. The present Governor, M. Magnin, has been a Senator since 1875. It is thought that this vote will bring on a conflict between the two Houses.

London, 14th—The news of the suicide of Barney Barnato is confirmed. Deceased jumped overboard while coming from Capetown to England on board the steamer Scott. The idea of committing suicide had completely dominated him during the last three months and his friends exercised a close watch on all his movements.

Liverpool, 15th—Argentine meat was sold here to-day at the following prices: mutton 3 pence per pound, beef 2¼ to 4 pence per pound.

Constantinople, 15th—Government has received information reporting that the bands of Bulgarian who invaded Macedonia have been compelled by Turkish troops to recross the frontier. Complete calm now prevails in that Province.

London, 15th—Telegrams from the Cape report that a telegram has been received from Vryburg announcing that the anti-British feeling is spreading in Bechuanaland. A number of armed natives attacked the British encampment of Mashowing last night. Six British soldiers were killed during the fight which followed. The Commander of the British troops there has telegraphed to the Cape for reinforcements. There are signs that this movement has been fomented by the Transvaal Government.

Leipzig, 15th—The fire which broke out yesterday in the Oberhohendorf mines in Zwickwau did not prove so disastrous as at first supposed, two hundred miners escaped while only two others were killed by the explosion.

THIS MORNING'S TELEGRAMS.

(Received after Midnight)

London, 15th—The preparations for the Diamond Jubilee fetes have already commenced. Triumphal arches are being erected along the line of route to be taken by the Royal procession, and also wooden stands for which fabulous prices are expected. The foreign visitors are already arriving and before the end of the week an enormous crowd of strangers will be gathered together in the metropolis.

Vienna, 15th—The socialist agitation in the Province of Galitzia is calming down, and it is expected that the severe measures adopted will prevent any recurrence of the recent riots.

Constantinople, 15th — The Sublime Porte, acceding to representations made by the Ambassadors of the Great Powers, has telegraphed to the Turkish Governor of Volo to desist, until receipt of further orders, from seizing the property of emigrants from Thessaly. This concession on the part of the Sultan is gladly accepted by the Greeks as a sign that Turkey is willing to modify her original demands.

Amsterdam, 15th—The following is the result of the elections for Deputies held to-day: Catholics 20, Protestants 13, Liberals 12, Radicals 1 and 38 ties, the result of only 6 elections is still unknown.

THE FAMOUS "CAUCION."

Minister's Escalante's financial stroke, supposed to wipe out the famous "caucion" of so-called National Bank securities, deserves special mention. However, before dwelling on the merits of this rumoured operation of the Government, we must explain the antecedents and full details of the "caucion," another word for pawning of stocks. We must go back to the year of gloom, the dark days of the crisis, to the 20th November, 1891, when the Argentine Congress voted a law whereby the National Government was ordered to take over the responsibility of the debts that the National Bank had contracted with several continental banks of Europe.

Three syndicates advanced money to the National Bank, as follows :—

Messrs. L. and R. Cahen d'Anvers and Co. advanced 1,500,000 £ stg. and received from the National Bank as guarantee, the General Bond of the Central Northern Railway Loan, IInd Series, for 14,432,947.20 $ gold.

Messrs. L. and R. Cahen d'Anvers and Co. advanced 12,500,000 francs.

The Banque d'Anvers advanced 6,715,058.16 francs.

On the two latter loans the National Bank gave as guarantee 6,967,650 $ of National Cedulas, Series A gold, and 1,473,000 $ of La Plata Cedulas, Series A gold. Thus in exchange for an aggregate of 2,270,000 £ stg., the National Bank pawned 4,774,000 stg. of stock.

To save this enormous amount of securities, the National Government took over the responsibility of the advances to the National Bank, and in December of 1892, signed an agreement with the bankers whereby 150,000 £ stg. were remitted to cover all balances due to the three syndicates up to end of that year, and the National Treasury agreed to redeem the advances by a monthly payment of 30,000 £stg. to the Disconto Gesellchaft in Berlin, named sole representative of the several bankers.

In the complicated operation an interest of 5% and a yearly commission of 2% were fixed in favor of the Disconto Gesellschaft or syndicate. It was agreed that the Government should continue the service on the pledged securities in bonds of the Consolidation Loan; these bonds to be handed in exchange for the matured coupons and allotted securities of the Central Northern Railway Loan. The securities could not be sold and were to be deposited for account of the National Government with Messrs. L. and R. Cahen d'Anvers and Co., excepting those bonds which in the process of sinking funds should be redeemed by the Government in cash and at the current market quotation of the day on the London Stock-Exchange. There are further conditions in this remarkable agreement that show how the continental bankers cornered the Argentine Government in a moment of great financial distress. In fact the Argentine Government had to bow its head to the dictates of the imperious Disconto Gesellschaft or Antwerp syndicates.

This financial operation hung round the neck of the National Treasury like an "old man of the sea," and in the natural order of affairs of this kind was expected to continue so until July 1898. It was on the release from this burden on the above date that the Romero readjustment of the National Debt service hinged, and it was on this very account that Dr. Romero, when Minister of Finance so bitterly opposed the resumption of the interest on the debt, one year before the release of the famous "caucion."

When Dr. Escalante took over the financial portfolio his first effort was to shake off this operation, and he must have heaved a sigh of relief when he succeeded in collecting the funds for the operation. We are not in the secrets of the finance-office, and, though we have seen in print the statement that the "caucion" is a thing of the past, that the pawned securities have been transferred from Messrs. L. and R. Cahen d'Anvers and Co. to the Bank of England to order of the Argentine Government, we still await from the Minister of Finance an official declaration of the fact.

To our knowledge the Argentine Government on the 30th inst. will still be in debt on account of the "caucion" to the round amount of 2,000,000$ gold. Thus eight millions of marks must have been paid to the Disconto Gesellschaft this month. We fail to see how and when the Argentine Government has scraped up the amount since the beginning of the year. If the "caucion" has been wiped out, we believe that Minister Escalante must have borrowed the money in London. At all events this operation would be plausible, since it would place in the power of the Argentine Government the pawned stock, viz—

	$ gold
Railway Loan.....	14,432,947
National Gold Cedulas...	6,967,650
Provincial Gold Cedulas..	1,473,000
	22,873,597

It stands to reason that the release of such an amount of stock would much improve the financial power of the Government and enable it to face the deficits of 1895 and 1896, and the resumption of interest on the debt in 1897 with a light heart. Under such circumstances it would not be surprising if the Government, in fact, had lodged in London all the funds needed to meet all requirements abroad up to January 1898. An official declaration, however, is needed to establish the facts of the case—a confirmation of the above ought to immensely improve the situation.

LONDON LETTER.

CLOUDS ROLL BY.

LORD SALISBURY'S SPEECH.

(From our own Correspondent.)

May 19th.

Jubilee weather. Queen's weather. A clear blue sky, but with still a chilly feel in the air at nights, just to remind us there is nothing perfect in this world. But we hope to go spinning along without a cloud until and beyond Jubilee day. Do you know that this world is a top, and that you people near the South pole are on the peg. I see in Nature this week that M. de Lapparent, the great geologist, thinks that Nansen's discovery or hypothesis, that the North Polar sea is wide and deep, proves or tends to prove, that the earth is shaped like a top. At least he apparently thinks this is probable, and he partly follows, he says, the opinions of the late Mr. Lowthion Green, who in the "Vestiges of the Molten Globe" tried to show that the shape of the earth when the water is removed is tetrahedral like a crystal of that ilk. I remember venturing to remark to Mr. Green that if it were so, the seas south of the equator should be immensely deeper than north of the line. He replied that his theory referred only to the solid crust of the earth, and that the ocean south of the equator might be shallowed by the slough of ages. After that little bit of history I return to actualities, but do not let future admirals of the Argentine fleet forget that they ought to be in the van of discoverers in Antarctic regions. A British expedition to the South pole is spoken of.

Lord Salisbury made an admirable speech at the Constitutional Club yesterday. It was so filled with sweet reasonableness that he almost persuaded us to be Tories and believe in him as the one wise and cool head in Europe. In very strong terms he expressed his contempt for the 100 M. P's "who in their thoughtlessness ought to be considered as a disgrace to their body". His lordship confessed to having strong sympathies, and in regard to Greece, he said laughingly they might have been stronger "if he had kept up the classical associations of his school days". He spoke also of religious sympathies, and of the sympathy founded upon the early Liberal movement of the century, associated with some of the finest intellects of the last two generations. But sympathies, he said, should not be allowed to influence the policy of nations, which must be guided by international law, and by international justice and by the obligations which nations have undertaken with each other, and by the high duty which is imposed upon all to pursue that course which may lead to the maintenance of the invaluable peace of the world. Sympathies are sectional, and the desire for European peace by the observance of European engagements and by the knitting together as far as possible of the European powers, is the aim of every sensible man. This, said the Marquess, is an end governments may be proud to aim at, which may console men even when they have to put aside the sympathies, and which if it can only be maintained, will confer larger blessings than any other secular idea we can pursue.

In regard to Home Affairs Lord Salisbury congratulated himself and his party on getting rid of the delusion that London was more Radical than Conservative. He rejoiced that the metropolis was the centre of Imperialism. He looked forward to the day when "megalomania"—the lever of the vast machine—may not so exclusively occupy our minds, and that the various districts of London shall have a larger share in the management of their own affairs. His lordship seemed to look forward equally to the time when social reforms shall not be sacrificed to political nostrums, and when healthy legislation shall supersede agitators, innovators and tinkerers. In this high frame of mind he announced that by the intervention of Russia the Sultan had agreed to an armistice, and that the Powers, who were never more united than at present, would see that if Greece had to pay rather dearly for her indiscretion, she should not be crushed or allowed to surrender Christian territory to the Turk.

It must be a feeble brain that cannot sift this farrago of falsehood so glibly uttered by a man who has no sympathies that are not individualist and of his class, and who has but one creed—"keep things as they are, lest worse things befall us". This indeed is the creed of official Europe. The "maintenance of peace" is but a blind. The Emperors must have a care. While the German Emperor gloats over a little speck of fallen Liberalism on the fringe of barbarism in the East, the Reichstag turns against him, and only a well drilled and abject Prussia supports his tyranny. In England the time is auspicious for a temporary dash at Imperialism after the continental pattern. The Spectator is right when it bemoans the want of political conviction, the utter paralysis of the British House of Commons. Members are not taken into the confidence of the Government, they feel helpless and are naturally uninterested in the proceedings of the House and ask for a long adjournment until the jubilee demonstration is done with a demonstration the Queen herself dreads, and in which from the continued slump in the price of seats, it might appear the public take less and less interest. The thing has been overdone commercially and politically. Lord Salisbury and his little cabal are overdoing their parts. They may bring, under the pretence of a military experiment, 40,000 troops into London, and they will find sight-seers enough to cheer them, but a reaction something more than Radical is a matter of certainty. It needs some administrative blunder to make the thing ridiculous. This has very nearly happened in the good and popular idea of the Princess of Wales to provide a great dinner in the Parks for the very poor. The natural consequence is that tramps from all parts of the Kingdom are on the march to London. They will be disappointed, as Her Royal Highness' advisers begin to see the absurdity of the thing and will arrange that the dinner, if it be given at all, shall be under the superintendence of the different Parish guardians. Funds in aid of the Princess's design coming in slowly, a liberal donator has given £25,000. Some say it is Lipton the tea-man. Others say it is Mr. Astor. Whoever it is, he is, no doubt, bidding for a baronetcy or a peerage. This response to royal benevolence seems to be the shortest cut to the House of Lords. Mr. Fox, who figured in the law courts the other day and gave £40,000 to the Royal College of Music, missed his chance somehow. Cynics recommend that the College should return the money, as it belonged to the shareholders of some unfortunate company.

The production of some of the Rhodes-Harris' telegrams at the S. A. Committee has created an apparent fresh scandal. Many of the telegrams were missing, and of those produced some were so mutilated that they afford quite an amusing missing word puzzle: of this we shall know more to-morrow, but of course the inference is that Mr. Chamberlain and others after all knew more of what was going on in Bechuanaland than was supposed.

Mr. Oscar Wilde was released from prison this morning at the due expiry of his term.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June, 13th.

The Jubilee celebration in our good city of Rosario bids fair to be a splendid one, and our English community is bestirring itself in an active manner in order that the several fetes which are down in the programme, shall have all the splendour and success which the auspicious event, that calls forth the loyal manifestation of British subjects all over the world highly deserves.

On Monday the 21st a soirée and concert is to be given at our M.E. Church. The programme is very interesting and insures beforehand a complete success.

On the same evening a grand Cinderella dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. E. Kennard Davis at their sumptuous residence in Calle San Martin. The preparations made, and the number of invitations issued and accepted, will make of this festivity one of our social events.

The English residents of Roldan have likewise got up a ball, which will take place the same evening, and to which numerous invitations have been issued.

Last, but not least, comes the grand ball (official we may say) in celebration of the Diamond Jubilee, which will be given at our Olimpo Theatre on the 22nd inst., and for which extensive preparations, and on a grand scale, are being made.

Now then, how shall I manage to multiply myself, as it were, and make you the "cronica" of all these jollifications? You may depend I shall manage it somehow, and for the benefit of your lady readers—who are many—I shall ask the help of may lady friends, to gather for me all the details of dress, ornaments, gossip, flirtations, etc., etc.

Our Post and Telegraph Statistical Office is gradually becoming what is ought to be, and with the aid of good will from head quarters, will soon en-compass in correct and precise form, statistical data, not only dealing with correspondence that enters, and is sent through this terminus, but also general data as to the colonies and villages which depend on this 4th district, which is not only important but very extensive—data which will include the inhabitants, resources, areas of land sown, progress, etc.

According to the monthly report just passed in for May last, the entry movements of correspondence to Rosario were as follows:—Ordinary, or "franca" 393,363 —registered 8295—parcels 508—postal orders 120—letters declared value 95—telegrams 12,597.

Correspondence sent from here was: ordinary 344,114—registered 7158—parcels 673—postal orders 180—letters with value declared 99—Telegrams 25109—General receipts of the district 29,637.37 dollars m/n.

These amounts as compared with those of the preceding month of June show a considerable increase, a fact all the more worthy of notice as the paralyzation of our commerce in general, as felt all over the province, would lead us to imagine that a diminution instead of an increase on our postal and telegraphic movement would be but logical,—but it is not so, a fact that proves our vitality "malgré tout".

The ardour in politics is decreasing somewhat, although "los intransigentes" or radicals are making a sort of fictitious spurt, preaching revolution, bomb-shells, dynamite and such other persuasive elements and means of regeneration, or what they candidly believe to be regeneration, of the country. They remind me, —these "enragés" radicals—of a hungry pack of dogs barking at the moon.

The true regeneration of the country will be the work of General Roca, and the effect produced both at home and abroad since his candidateship has been launched and accepted by him, is a fact of such significance that only a set of ferocious and anarchical radicals refuse to recognize it.

THE HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

A NEW AMERICAN POLICY.

The proposed annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States does not greatly concern the people of the River Plate countries apparently, nevertheless, if consummated, it will mark a new era in North American policy.

On the 15th of January 1893 there arose a disagreement between the Queen of the Hawaiian Islands and her Cabinet over the question of a new Constitution and a few days later a Committee of Public Safety was formed and the Monarchial system was declared to be at an end. The United States Government quickly recognized the newly constituted Hawaiian Government, in fact many of the political opponents of the Harrison administration went so far as to say that the United States marines and blue jackets played an important part in overthrowing the Queen's supporters and establishing the new provisional Government.

Towards the close of Harrison's administration, the question of annexation was brought up in the Senate, but, not being concluded before the advent of the new Cleveland administration, an entirely different face was put on the whole scheme of annexation by the active opposition of the new President, who went so far as to send a Commissioner, Mr. Blount, to the Islands to investigate the action of the United States Officials located there at the time of the "revolution" that resulted in the overthrow of the Monarchy.

In the meantime, on July 4th 1894, the Hawaiian Republic was proclaimed with Mr. Dole as President, and the Republican form of Government has been maintained down to the present time in spite of one or more well plannedattempts to overthrow it, one of them resulting in the ex-Queen's banishment.

Commissioner Blount's report was not favorable to the action of the United States Officials, and President Cleveland, in spite of the efforts of the Government of the islands to secure annexation, seemed to be more in favor of assisting in restoring the ex-Queen to her throne, than in annexing the islands to the States.

It was understood some time ago in political circles that an effort would be made to annex the islands to the States early during President Mc Kinley's administration, and it is believed that the plan will be successfully carried out.

The Hawaiian or Sandwich Islands lie in the North Pacific ocean in the trade route between the United States and Australia, India and China. Honolulu, the principal city, located on the island of Oa hu ,not the largest of the group, is 16 deg. 25 min. South and 35 deg. and 25 min. West of San Francisco, California, and in 1896 contained nearly 30,000 inhabitants; it is lighted by electricity and well supplied with electric tramways, telephones etc. The climate is sulubrious, and the islands, although mountainous and of volcanic origin, are rich and productive and export large quantities of sugar, rice, coffee, bananas, wool and hides, principally to the United States. The population in 1896 was 137,000; of whom 75,000 were Hawaiians, 24,000 Japanese, 15,000 Chinese, 9,000 Portuguese mixed bloods and 14,000 white of European and American descent.

The American Government has been known for some years to have a policy in regard to the island that was opposed to interference in their political affairs by any foreign country, and that would cause it to resist by force any attempt by any power to annex them. At the same time there has been, and is, a strong feeling against incorporating them within the Republic, on account of the large number of inhabitants that they contain that would not make desirable citizens, and on account of their great distance from the American coast. Still, it is believed that the majority of the Republican party favor their annexation, so we may soon see the Great Northern Republic stretching an arm out hundreds of miles over the Pacific Ocean and grasping with its protecting hand the 6,600 square miles of territory forming the Hawaiian Islands.

HORRIFIED DUKES.

MR. LABOUCHERE REPRIMANDED.

London, 14th

For the past few sittings of the South Africa Committee—indeed, since Major Willoughby's stubborn refusal to divulge what transpired in those "private conversations," the proceeding have been of a calm and reposeful character, but yesterday Mr. Labouchere, being in the mood, succeeded in infusing an element of breezy excitement.

It was fully half-past twelve before the members of the committee made their appearance, when the Duke of Abercorn took his seat in the witness's chair to further submit himself to cross-examination. In answer to Mr. Labouchere, he said that the administration of the Chartered Company's territory was in the hands of Mr. Rhodes, who took all important steps upon himself, and merely acquainted the board afterwards with his actions. Furthermore the duke stated that the board always accepted Mr. Rhodes's views. With regard to the raid the witness said that none of the company had any forewarning of it, and when the news of Dr. Jameson's movement was made known to them they were all filled with horror.

So far the sitting had proceeded peacefully, but a period of warmth and excitement was reached when Mr. Labouchere dipped into the delicate question of the Duke of Abercorn's financial position in the company.

Mr. Labouchere: When you joined the company what was your financial relation to it?—I was a shareholder.

What was the amount of your shares? —Eight thousand, I think.

How did you get those shares? Was it in the open market?

Mr. Bigham: Is this a proper subject of inquiry? We are here inquiring into the circumstances of the raid. What has that got to do with the way in which this gentleman obtained his shares?

Mr. Labouchere: My allegation is that one of the reasons for the raid was for Stock Exchange purposes. I ask the witness to tell us what was his position with regard to the shares. If that is not allowed I must clear the room.

Mr. Bigham: I must really press this question. It is a most impertinent inquiry.

The Chairman: Let the room be cleared.

Deliberations in the outer chamber occupied nearly three quarters of an hour, at the expiration of which the chairman, on resuming, informed the witness that the committee had authorised him to put this question:—

Did you in the last six months of 1895 buy or sell any share in the Chartered Company?"—"No."

In answer to Mr. Buxton, the witness said the reason why the company did not at once, on learning of the raid, repudiate Dr. Jameson's action, was that the directors were so horrified that they were unable to come to a determination on the matter.

The Duke of Fife, who was the next witness, said in answer to the chairman, that he desired to corroborate generally the Duke of Abercorn's evidence as to the fact that the directors of the Chartered Company had no knowledge of the raid before it took place.

Mr. Labouchere pursued his curious inquiries.

Did you in the last six months of 1895 buy or sell any shares in the Chartered Company?—Yes.

Can you tell the committee the details? —I really don't remember the details. I know I sold some shares in the last six months of 1895.

Do you remember how many?— At least 1,000: but I fail to see what it has to do with the raid. I have stated on my oath that I knew nothing about the raid. I should like to be allowed to say that I had not the faintest suspicion that any interference in the affairs of the Transvaal was contemplated by anybody connected with the Chartered Company. No hint or suggestion of any sort or kind was ever made to me by anybody, and I should like to add that I deeply deplore the action of those connected with the company who have mixed themselves up with this miserable business.

Then Mr. Labouchere, finding the interest waning, sat up briskly and put to the witness the very question which in the case of the Duke of Abercorn had been ruled as improper.

The Duke of Fife: Although it may be an improper question, I am quite ready to answer it.

The Chairman: I cannot allow the question to be put.

Evidence corroborative of the Duke of Abercorn's statement as to the Board's ignorance of the raid was given by Lord Gifford, Sir Horace Farquhar, and Mr. Causton, directors of the British South Africa Company.

The Committee adjourned until Friday, when Mr. Charles Leonard will be examined.

DRY DOCKS AND NORTH BASIN.

To the Editor of the STANDARD,—

Dear Sir,—

The day the Italian liner docked, I saw the two docks, which are a credit to the contractors. But docks without workshops are like a cart without a horse. Had one dock been constructed with engineering and repairing shops, then the job would have been a good one. If the work has to be done at the engineering establishments at the south end of the town, I think even with lower dock rates than Cibils, the expense will be equally as great, owing to the serious loss of time. A good shop to execute heavy repairs to hull and engines will cost at least £70,000. Similar docks to those in England would cost from £70,000 to £80,000 each. If I remember aright a sum equal to £333,333 was voted for the construction of these two docks; and if the cost of the abandoned Zarate Dock (which by the way is doing good work in the River Tyne), one hundred thousand pounds, be added to the above, those Government docks stand at over £217,000 each, which is certainly paying for its whistle. As they are without shops they will be very inconvenient, except for painting and cleaning ships' bottoms.

NORTH DARSENA OR BASIN.

I was not at all favourably impressed with it. There was only a capfull of wind from the eastward, and a big swell came rolling in from the river. The entrance is quite open to the eastward. If vessels were moored in it they would certainly be liable to receive great damage, and with a heavy gale it would be a breaking-up yard, which doubtless would benefit the repairing docks. With a heavy swell, the docks themselves have a risk, for should the gates be open, the caissons—that is, the pontoon gates—are liable to receive injuries, so as to render them useless should they sink. It was said that the river steamers would run to and from this basin, but I imagine their owners will not agree to leave their present snug moorings for such a risky one.

A remedy to shut out the swell I think would be curved moles run out some distance, or a crescent-shaped breakwater with its horns shoreward, such as now protects Leghorn Harbour from a similar trouble. This latter would be the most effective. When the North Channel is open to traffic you will doubtless hear more about the North Basin.

As this may interest many of your nautical readers, and those concerned in shipping, you will excuse me encroaching on your valuable space.

Yours truly,

Nauticus.

WARNING

To the Editor of the STANDARD:—

Dear Sir,—

June, 14th.

A thought that has often occurred to me came prominently to my mind on Saturday when reading your description of the New Orphanage for girls, viz: Do these Orphanages, schools, convents, etc., make any provision in case of fire? Would the hundreds of little ones have any chance? Or would they be cremated while sleeping soundly in their little beds? For the most part these buildings are far from the centre, and out of range of the bomberos; besides, the inmates are all women and children, so that help could only come from outside. I have often thought of this when passing the huge buildings on the Flores road, and though I have no children in any of them, I have often shuddered at the thought of what might happen in case of fire. They may be constructed with every facility for escape, but you make no mention of anything of that description in your article of the 12th.

Yours truly

Nervous.

DISCLAIMER.

Buenos Aires, June 14th.

To the Editor of the STANDARD,

Dear Sir.

The statement you published in your issue of the 11th inst. is entirely without foundation.

I am always prepared to meet anyone who may care to call upon me at my office, Reconquista, No. 290.

As my absence at the time of publishment, and even previous to same, was due to business occupations in other quarters, and afterwards through indisposition caught on the same voyage, I have not been able to call upon you, as you will easily understand the explanation yourself.

I am, dear sir,

Yours very truly,

J. Christensen.

[Ed. Note—This is a most lamentable incident, and points out the abuse of placing reputations at the mercy of any charge laid before a police-court. We have much pleasure in publishing Mr. Christensen's note, as it removes all doubts in the matter, and shows on what flimsy foundations action can be taken before the police and conveyed to the public.]

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent)

June, 15th.

The Senate met to-day and voted "in general" a Bill granting $10,000 towards the erection of the church at Yapeyú, to the memory of General San Martin.

The Bill granting an extension of 60 days for payment of taxes in arrears was definitely sanctioned, in spite of the opposition of the Finance Minister.

The House subsequently held a secret sitting and voted "acuerdo" for the appointment of Dr. D. Alsina as member of the Court, and other appointments made by the Executive on the "Desagues" Commission.

Don Felipe Mayol has been acquitted of the charge of defrauding the Hipothecary Bank, while he was a Director on the Board.

THEATRES AND AMUSEMENTS.

THE OPERA.

Massenet's Manon attracted last night the usual brilliant throng, which accorded an exceptionally enthusiastic reception to the performance. The manner in which Manon was rendered was truly "ravissaut," due to the pet of the public, the charming and gifted prima-donna Signorina Cesira Ferrani, who was admirably seconded by de Lucia. The Ferranis Manon in the third act, was such as we have not seen before, and brought the house down. Helas! we must confess that the public was again disappointed; the splendid minuet at the beginning of the fourth act was omitted, we cannot understand why. But taking the performance all round it was a success. Several English families were present last night, and all those who can go should not lose the opportunity, when next Manon is given, of renewing their acquaintance with Massenet's masterpiece.

The benefit for the "Centro Argentino" at the San Martin last night, was most successful, the attendance being remarkably good and the performance excellent. Pickel and Tono Polo in their entrance were very funny, as was also Paco Busto. The Nagels family in their wonderful acrobatic feats were greatly applauded, and the little duetists Vargas and Bisaccia were recalled many times. Their new duets are very taking and please immensely. The grand pantomime "Cinderella" concluded an excellent all round performance.

To-night, the performance will be for the benefit of "La Sociedad protectora de huérfanos de militares" when the theatre should be filled to excess to aid such a worthy institution.

"Amor y Claustro", the new piece by Ezequiel Soria, is a great success at the Comedia, and is received every night with much applause. Another new piece "La Roncalesa" is also very successful, and is capitally interpreted by Sra. Alba, who is splendid, and Señores Tapias and Mesa.

The Cinematógrafo at this theatre surpasses anything that has hitherto been done in this way. The views are excessively clear and steady, and are so good, that many of them are encored.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The barometer rose and the thermometer fell yesterday, and their united efforts produced a cold, crispy, bright dry day that gave all the dames and damsels of the city an opportunity of showing off their furs (genuine and mock) and velvets. And what a prodigious lot of both materials Dame Fashion has decreed they must wear this winter. However, they become the fair ones (old and young) so well that the "governors" and "tatitas" who have to pay for them growl less than usual. News? Very little of it. The Venus and Montevideo farce has created a little hot pitch in and out of Congress; but it's not boiling, nor likely to boil, and nobody will be scalded. Same old twang on the European Fiddle. His Sublimity the Sultan is now feigning to yield to the Powers about Thessaly; but it may safely be asserted that the wily old cove has several more shots in his locker of lies for them before the inevitable gold pen to sign the treaty of peace is ordered from the nearest jeweller. The Rue de Jerusalem now thinks that the attempt on President Faure is part of a vast Anarchist plot. It cannot be, as the bomb was such a miserably made affair that it would n't have killed the President even if it had hit him, and his cool order to the coachman "Drive on. It's nothing but smoke", hit the thing off exactly. All Europe is praising the President's "sang froid" on the occasion. He must have imbibed it when he was in England while a young man, as fiery, not cool, courage is the characteristic of his countrymen.

The National Deputies held a secret sitting yesterday, to which Dr. Alcorta, Minister of Foreign Affairs, was summoned. The debate, or rather, the chat, was all about the B. O. unpleasantness. but it amounted to nothing, and no decision was arrived at.

The proud and haughty Dons ought to rejoice. That ineffable military and civil bungler, Weyler has resigned; or, more likely, has been ordered to resign. What a reception he will get on arriving in his native land!

It there be any truth in some of last night's telegrams from Montevideo, the army of which President Borda is, by a Constitutional fiction, Commander in Chief, is breaking up, at least that portion of it in the field. There seems to be a general three D's state of affairs in the B. O. Cabinet also.

The political note of the day yesterday was the proclamation of Dr. Quirno Costa in Santiago del Estero as candidate to be General Roca's Vice-President. Some very astute politicians think that this is a clever electioneering dodge to force him to resign his seat in the Cabinet, as political etiquette prescribes that no one can be candidate and Minister at the same time.

The row for which Colonel Truman's Argentine horses are required at the Cape is casting its shadows before it. The Bechuanaland rising is spreading, and it is strongly suspected that Uncle Paul Kruger is fostering it, while Kaiser Second to None is fostering His Roughship. All right. The portly Cecil who pilots Britannia's ship no doubt knows all about it; and when he puts the helm straight and gives the order to "ram", there will be sheep's "trotters" in the Transvaal. Yes Sirree! You bet.

The 50th anniversary of the death of Daniel O'Connell was recently celebrated by a special Requiem Mass in the church of the Irish College, Rome, where the heart of the Irish leader is preserved.

To-night (Wednesday) at 8.30, in the hall of the English Literary Society, a lecture on "Benjamin Franklin" will be given by the Rev. Pelham Ogle M. A. In such highly talented hands, it will be a genuine treat. It is open to non-members.

From the moment the box office opened for the sale of tickets for the performance of H. M. Pinafore, Messrs Grant and Sylvester's store in Calle Cangallo was regularly besieged and the seats went off like wild fire. For the first night's performance very few stalls are left, and those anxious to be present must apply very early to-day. The success of the Opera is assured.

The Revista Veterinaria in its last issue has a capital article on "Cavalry Horses," ("El Caballo de Guerra",) in reference to Colonel Truman's mission to this country, and we strongly recommend its persual to our estanciero friends. There is a big future export trade in horses ahead for this country, not only for war but for other purposes, if it be taken intelligently and scientifically in hands now., when it is only just being born.

The Liverpool steamer American, one of the latest vessels of the West India and Pacific Steamship Company's fleet, sailed from New York on May 8, laden with the greatest variety of goods that ever left an American port in a vessel under the British flag. The American is bound for Capetown, and her cargo embraces everything from a live jackass to a set of false teeth. Nearly 3000 shippers are represented in the cargo of 12,000 tons, the value of which is estimated at 2,000,000 dollars.

This old story is jogging along again a home:—A young contralto at a Handel concert which Sir Joseph Barnby was conducting, at the end of a solo put in a high note instead of a less effective note usually sung. This innovation shocked the conductor, and he immediately asked whether Miss——thought she was right in trying to improve upon Handel. "Well, Sir Joseph," said she, "I've got an E, and I don't see why I shouldn't show it off." "Miss——," rejoined Barnby, "I believe you have two knees, but I hope you won't show them off here."

The Court has refused to grant the request for the release of the Blanco adventurers, on the ground that the case is already in the hands of the Federal Judge. The Government of President Borda, on the other hand, has recognized the justice of the Argentine protest against the recent violation of territory, and has promised to punish the Commander of the gun-boat Suarez. The departure of the Espora has consequently been countermanded.

Governor Virasoro has telegraphed to Dr. Quirno Costa that the so-called revolution in Entre Rios is so far confined to mere rumours.

Our eminent dentist friend Dr. Mathiason announces a change of domicile which his large clientele should take note of. His new address. is No. 579 Calle Cuyo.

That purely clerical error of ours the other day about only $60 being subscribed for the Jubilee Fund, instead of for a memorial in the English Club, has made our worthy colleague the M. V. T. very angry and red in the face, so much so indeed that he forgets his politeness and speaks disrespectfully of the locusts, referring to them as "Those Wretched Locusts." Our good colleague is also much troubled in mind because the London papers spell the name of Uruguay's capital in two words, Monte Video instead of Montevideo. Such troubles, however, are incidental to journalistic life, and must be borne with resignation.

The following list of the war indemnities of the past half century is interesting:—

The proprietor of a drugstore in Chicago has been condemned by a jury to pay $1,500 gold on account of the destruction of a little child's eye by carbolic acid placed in a salve by one of his clerks, by mistake: and another proprietor has been condemned to pay $5,000 on account of a severe sickness suffered by a person who took a prescription in which a clerk had by mistake mixed corrosive sublimate (bichloride of mercury), luckily a very small quantity.

One of the features of the Jubilee in India will be the lighting of huge bonfires on the highest peaks of the Himalayas that can be reached. Not a bad idea.

English—no our Caledonian countrymen will be huffed—we mean British rule for ever! The population of Egypt is now 9 ½ millions, an increase of no less than 42 per cent in the last fifteen years. What do you say to this, Madame La France?

The suicide of Barny Barnato, the South African mining king, rather startled the resident Britishers yesterday "What a wind-up!" was the general exclamation. He threw himself over-board on the voyage home from Capetown. His huge speculations most probably drove him cracked. He began life as a clown in a circus.

Monopoly is one of the banes that most curse the country that tolerates it, and it is the dream by night and thought by day of quite too many enterprising people here. Some of these gentry are now before Congress with an audacious proposal for an exclusive privilege for loading steamers! This is indeed pretty cheeky. What next?

All British India seems now to be in a shake and a quake, thanks to the Earthquake Fiend. There are daily shocks here, there and everywhere in the enormous country. Such a phenomenon has not been witnessed there before. A train hurled from the track by a shock is an unprecedented occurrence.

25 DE MAYO 112

Quaint and original was the excuse made by Florence Pearce, a comely young woman, who was charged at the West London Police Court last month with being disorderly while in a state of intoxication.

"I was excited," she pleaded, "at the prospect of getting married!"

"Well," asked Mr. Lane, "did the marriage come off?"

"No," answered the damsel, laughing, "It comes off next Saturday."

"Oh, I see," said his worship, pensively. "Well, you may go this time."

And the exhilarated bride-prospective left the Court rejoicing.

We note that our enterprising subscribers Messrs. Leach of Salta have started the growing of yerba in Jabez Balfour's province. They have put 350 plants in Mother Earth's bosom, and expect a grand result. The plants cost only two shinplasters each.

At a political meeting a few years ago Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, the hero of the recent adventure in Greece, was not only the principal speaker, but also an admirable amateur "chucker-out." An individual in the crowd persisted in offensive interruptions during the honourable member's speech. Sir Ellis bade him "keep quiet," "hold your tongue, sir," and so forth, very sternly several times, but in vain. At length the orator suddenly stopped the torrent of his eloquence and scrambled down from the platform. He marched straight up to his persecutor, wriggling between benches to get at him, and said, "Now, sir, I am going to show you the way to the door." The man resisted at first, but Ashmead took him by the scruff of the collar and bustled him out very effectively. The audience cheered in huge delight, and even the victim seemed to take in the humour of the situation, "All right, sir," he said, "I'll go quietly. I'd like to shake hands with you first, though. I respecks you."

REGISTERED KENT
SHEEP

The attention of flockmasters through out the world is called to the above breed of sheep, which is establishing a reputation second to none, both at home and abroad.

Australia, New Zealand, the Argentine Republic, Cape Colony and Natal South Africa and the Falkland Islands have found them most valuable in that before any other sheep they readily adapt themselves to climatic variations and thrive upon any sort of feed,

The characteristics of the Kent or Romney Marsh breed are the production of mutton of the highest quality with a large proportion of lean meat, the rendering of a heavy fleece of good demi-lustre wool and the greatest possible thriftiness.

These sheep graze evenly over any land upon which they are depastured and do not herd together, as is the case with many other breeds.

For crossing with other breeds, the Romney Marsh stands unequalled, brining as it does a hardy constitution combined with great kindliness points which are all important in a grazing animal.

Full information and a list of Breeders of Registered Kent or Romney Sheep can be obtained from W. W. Chapman, Secretary of the Kent or Romney Marsh Sheep Breeders' Association, Fitzalan House, Arundel Street, Strand, London, England.

the man got very wet. The wetting gave him a cold. The cold, neglected, developed to a cough. The cough sent him to a bed of sickness. A dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, taken at the start, would have nipped the cold in the bud and saved the sickness, suffering, and expense. The household remedy for colds, coughs, and all lung troubles, is

Gold Premium

First Ring.....	194.80
Second Ring.....	194.90

The market woke up very vigorously to-day with a wild fling in gold that astonished the majority considerably, nearly ½ a million dollars changing hands for cash alone. Prices did not shew striking variety, as they held wonderfully firm, avalanche and all notwithstanding, but they did bend somewhat to the weight, and must eventually give way further, unless there comes a new and unexpected change over the features of the situation. Taking things as they stand, the outlook is shaping boldly and clearly for a fall. It has been noted for some time that, whilst buyers on time have become significantly scarcer, sellers, first rate signatures too, have come forward, whilst exchange is actually bristling. This is not a speculative freak either. It is the outcome of a situation automatically working out, as speculation has baen an unknown factor in the market for two or three months back, in fact almost since the Castells flare-up. Flickering attempts to revive it have proved disastrous, and no one will venture to contend that there is any speculative element at all at work. Thus, narrowed down to the influences of demand and supply, the market shews an almost unvarying monotony, but with the contango changing into backwardation, it is quite clear that the mass of "pase" gold will have to come on the market at the end of the month, since passed over from month to month at 1¼ to 2 points, with the bridge broken, the pass is blocked. So long as the bulls were able to maintain a high contango they could maintain their positions, but times have changed, the market with them, and the bulls are cornered. A month or so ago things were widely different; then we did not have exchange at 43d., Fundings at 88, a backwardation for the end of the month, or General Roca commanding the political arena. A bare month has seen a startling change in positions, and it is through realizing this that the market is shadowing out a break-away.

There was no great volume about the business in gold at the first hour, in spite of cash operations running to nearly ½ a million dollars. This is due to the scarcity of buyers on time, as brokers say that business for dates is very difficult, even with the best signatures offering, the market at large being under the impression that gold must break, which makes operators chary about buying for dates over the month. The fluctuation in prices was a minimum, the cash rate opening at 294.90 and oscillating between 294 and 294.60, to close at 294.80. For July it was almost even money, and about 30 cents backwardation was quoted for end of month. After the hour the price remained over at 294.90 sellers. Stocks were quiet, some Catalinas being done at 7.90 and 8, Constructors at 4.10, National G's at 84 and Santa Fé Consols at 39. A batch of Buenos Aires Ports was posted at 21.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

$ 488,550 cash at 294.90.80-295-294.89--90-80-70-80-90-70-80-295-294-90-80-295-294.80-90-80-70-80-70-60-70-294.80.

We have frequently drawn the attention of the Camara Sindical to the very reckless way in which "gatos" are thrown off in the ring, always, of course, to the prejudice of genuine business and now we can give them another instance. A merchant instructed his broker to buy him 10,000 Santa Fé Consols, limit 39. He had not been long in the ring on the look-out for a seller when an operation was posted at 39 ½, which was a most emphatic 'gato', as our friend the merchant awaiting the return of his broker, overheard a conversation between another broker and 2 gentlemen from up country, in which broker núm. 2 explained that as there were no buyers offering except for "puchos" at 39, he had posted the operation at 39 ½ to stiffen the market. Broker núm. 1 later on informed his principal that he had the business nearly fixed off at 38 ¼ when the "gato" was posted, which caused the intending seller to declare off. It seems strange that the Camara cannot control operations, at least so far as the posting of them is concerned. These "gatos" cause no end of worry and inconvenience to really honest, straightforward dealers. There ought surely be a limit even to the bounds of fairness accorded proverbially in love and war.

With reference to our remarks in one last issue on the opening of docks, Capt. Elliot reminds us that the first dry-dock opened here was that of San Fernando—an excellent dock in a bad position. The river-steamers can be overhauled in that Dock, which was built by Wells and Barber, and which now, after the expiry of the concession, belongs to the San Fernando Municipality.

With regard to the nasty rumours afloat in police circles about Mr. Christensen, we have been asked to state that they are entirely without foundation, as this gentleman's absence was caused by business matters which he had to attend to personally, and subsequently by a severe cold contracted on the journey. This sets the matter at rest.

Canadian imports from Great Britain that in 1868 equalled more than 50 per cent of the total imports into the Dominion, fell in 1895 to only 34 per cent, while between 1868 and 1895 the imports from the United States increased from 36¼ per cent of the total to nearly 52 per cent. During 1896 the trade between Canada and the States amounted to $39,927,401 gold, of which about 2/3 represented imports from the States and 1/3 exports. The principal articles imported from the States are cottons, fancy goods, drugs and various manufactured goods. Exports from Canada to Great Britain are largely increasing.

British trade with Greece has been declining during recent years, many articles formerly imported from Great Britain now come from Germany, France and Belgium. A Consular report says, a foreign manufacturer can sell an article so closely resembling the British, that it would take an expert to detect the difference, and at prices varying from 14 to 50 % cheaper than the British. German manufacturers are continually experimenting, to hit on some cheap article of daily use suited to the Grecian market.

The commercial cables to-day give Fundings at 87¾. Combed B wool at 3.87½ francs, wheat at 29s. 6d. and maize at 13s. 9d.

Produce brokers report the market firm, everything selling, but arrivals very meagre, which will soon liquidate the wool stock. To-day's sales embraced—

50,000 kilos wool.
675,000 " maize.
120,000 " wheat.

Our lively colleague El Diario always shews a prudish rather than prudent chariness to accept the statements of the Finance Minister that the July and September Coupons are covered and the Administrative expenditure paid to date. Our colleague hints that the Government is buying gold daily, which we may say is not the opinion of brokers, who have a proverbially keen nose for these official operations, and the general impression is that if it were so, the gold prices, instead of being depressed, would be flaunting a bullish hue, Rubicon-wards. That the exchequer may not be overflowing with the sinews of war is true, but the Government has excellent credit, and in this way has been able to fill the gap left by the imaginary resources which the Full Pay Financial Committee of Congress so confidently yet mistakenly counted on. The Diario is belying its programme, and falsifying its mission as a mirror of the gay and testive side of nature, social and financial, by using the pigment with such a shockingly free brush, as there is neither necessity, urgency nor purpose in it. The market would not be optimistic if it suffered from the miopia that has afflicted our colleague since its financial medicine-man, Dr. Romero resigned. Sam Weller alleged inability, to see up a double flight of stairs, and through a deal door without being provided with a pair of double-barrelled magnifiers, but our colleague evidently requires a stouter lens still to overcome what looks almost like total blindness. Perhaps, though, it is only obliquity of vision, which might be got over by studying the angles.

There is said to be great demand for money on mortgage, any number of applicants and no money even at 12%, for city or camp properties We hear of a business done at this rate, $45,000 on an estancia, and brokers report being unable to get 30,000 on a house property in the city which yields $700 monthly rental. Money is, therefore, apparently very tight.

There is no particular animation in exchange as the market is still very quiet and little doing. We heard of bills passed to day at 48d, and as takers hold out for high rates drawers to do business must give way. We quote:

London—47 15/16d-48d.
Paris—5.01-01½ fcs.
Antwerp—5.02-03 fcs,
Hamburg—4.08-08¼ mks.

Discounts shew no change, being easy at current rates.

At the extraordinary meeting of Shareholders of the London and Brazilian Bank Limited, held in London to give effect to the resolution passed by the Shareholders at their annual general meeting on the 27th April to increase the remuneration of the Directors, the Chairman of the Bank, the Hon. P. C. Glyn, informed the meeting that the Brazilian Government had renewed the charter under which the Bank was established in Brazil, for a further period of twenty years, to date from the year 1900, when the existing authority expired; and he remarked that nothing could have exceeded the friendly consideration and promptitude with which the Brazilian Government had received and replied to the Bank's petition, an announcement which the meeting received with much applause.

The general meeting of the Western and Brazilian Telegraph Company, Limited was held on May 14, Lord Richard H. Browne presiding. The Chairman stated that the balance to the credit of the revenue account was £36,684, including the amount brought forward from the previous year. The Debenture interest for the half-year absorbed £10,671; they had placed £5,000 to reserve, and they now recommended a dividend of 3s a share, making a total payment of 6s., or 2 per cent. for the year, leaving £6,405 to be carried forward. Their loss in exchange for the past year was £28,300 on the Western and Brazilian Lines and £23,038 on the Platino Lines, making a total of £52,338. The report was adopted.

The Financial News of London rarely misses an opportunity of saying a favorable word for Argentina, though it "rubs it in" occasionally, and with no stint of measure when some financial monstrosity changes the flow of benevolence into fluid sarcasm. But on the whole, our colleague is most moderate and considerate in its appreciations, and has a wonderfully keen insight into and grasp of the Argentine situation, our resources, liabilities and prospects—none better. From its columns we take the following notes on the Central Cordoba railway, which are a glowing tribute to the tact and ability of Mr. Duncan Munro, manager of the line, who certainly cannot be divorced from the great strides in improvement which have worked our usually sedate colleague up to a high pitch of enthusiasm, as will be seen from the following:—

"The declaration of a dividend of £5 on the Cordoba Central (Central Northern Section.) Income Debentures and £2 per share on the Cordoba Central Preference shares has given general satisfaction. The figures come up to the highest expectations of the most optimistic, and largely surpass the estimates of the "careful", while they eloquently testify to the ability of the management of the company. To our readers these dividends should have occasioned no surprise. As far back as January 27, in a review of the position of this company, we gave a forecast of the probable results of last year's working, which clearly foreshadowed the distributions now decreed by the directors. Nevertheless, it is pleasant to find one's anticipations confirmed by subsequent events, and the stockholders in this company may very properly congratulate themselves that no unforeseen occurrence has intervened to deprive them in any way of the expected dividend. Argentina is a young country, and, as such, capable of developments which are quite impossible in older States; but it is doubtful whether even in Argentina anything more marvellous can be cited in railway development than the steady and continuous growth of the Cordoba Central Railway. The profits of this company were for 1891, £14,916; 1892, £20,663; 1893, £15,171; 1894, £27,689; 1895, £50,539; 1896 at least £70,000; while on the Northern Section there was a loss on working in 1891 of £2,639, but since then the profits have been as follow: 1892, £27,744; 1893, £9,413; 1894, £32,763; 1895, £39,458; 1896 exceeding £118,000. Nor does there appear to be as yet any slackening in the progress of traffics; for in the current year there has been so far, on the Northern Section, an increase in receipts of about $100,000, and it has been noticed that as the year progresses so does the ratio of increases augment. The fact that the original line does not also show an increase in gross receipts is due only to the shortness of the wheat harvest; but the reports of the coming sugar crops are so excellent that we may hope to see the forward movement resumed shortly."

The following is a summary of the report and are statement of Liebig's Extract of Meat Company, Limited, presented at the 32nd ordinary general meeting of the Company, in London, on Tuesday, 1st of June, 1897:—"The River Plate Local Board held their usual Meeting at Fray Bentos on the 13th and 14th November, 1896, when the Company's Books and Accounts there, to 30th September, were examined and certified as correct. The buildings, machinery and plant were found to be in a perfect condition. Some additions made during the year to the Extract and Tongue Factories have most advantageously completed our extensive Fray Bentos Works. The Company's Estancias (cattle farms), as usual, materially assisted in supplying a number of the animals required for our slaughter, and in serving as resting places for the numerous droves coming to Fray Bentos from a distance. The arrangement with the Kemmerich Company continues to work to our entire satisfaction. The excellent result of the year was brought about by a variety of causes, the chief being normal cattle prices and a very good yield in tallow and other produce. The prices of hides also kept up well, and the new machinery put up in recent years proved of great advantage. An increased sale of the Company's" Extract in the United Kingdom and generally throughout the world, further augmented the profit. We look upon this increase as an effective appreciation by the public of the unapproachable quality of our manufacture. The sale of our Peptone of Beef also developed, and the article is generally used in hospitals and infirmaries. The Revolution in Uruguay has not affected the Company's business or prosperity. The balance of the annexed Profit and Loss Account amounts to £120,451 15s. 7d.; and out of this an Interim Dividend of 5 per cent was paid on the 15th of February last, amounting to £25,000 0 0 and the Directors propose to appropriate the Balance in the following manner—
To pay a dividend of 15 per cent equal to £3 per share, making, with the Interim Dividend, 20 per cent for the year 1896 (free of Income Tax). 75,000 0 0
To carry to the Reserve Fund 5,000 0 0
To carry to the Employés' Provident Fund..... 2,000 0 0
To deduct for Directors' percentages, 10 per cent.... 7,908 1 4 leaving a sum of £5,543 14s. to carry forward to Profit and Loss Account. The Directors deeply regret to have to record the death of their esteemed Chairman, Mr. Charles Günther, who was the last survivor of the original directors and founders of the Company, and its Managing Director from the beginning, and to whom to a great extent the Company owes its unprecedented development. The Board invited Mr. C. E. Günther to assume the position of Chairman of the Company, which offer was accepted, and they filled the vacant directorship by appointing Mr. Robert L. Günther, who has for a number of years been in the Company's service, and has acquired a thorough knowledge of its business both in Europe and the River Plate."
£114,908 1 4

The forthnightly liquidation has apparently passed off very quietly, as no hitch is reported. The market has relapssd into indifference again, and the price sticks hard round 295, so that there is little probability of any new departure till close on to the liquidation. At the second hour a paltry ¼ of a million dollars changed hands, of which over ¼ was for cash, the rate opening at 295 and closing at 294.90, though after the hour 295 was again the price, buyers and sellers. Stocks were quite hum-drum, rather weakish than otherwise, San Nicolas Ports making a reappearance at 11¼, which shews a severe drop, National G's were done at 83.80, 20 cents under the morning rate, Constructor Obligations at 80 cents, and the shares at 4 dollars, whilst Catalinas weakened off to 7.70. Some Spanish Banks were done at 120, and Santa Fé Consols at 39.

Business in the law-courts has taken a lull, and there is no addition to the "agony" list. The British Bank of South America has filed a claim against the Province of Santa Fé, in Supreme Court against exaction of taxes from which all "Free Banks" are exempted. In the application of Messrs S. Boote & Co., for moratorium, the President of the Banco de la Nacion, and Mr. J.M. Drysdale have been named interventors. In the Santa Fé Courts the testamentaria of Mr. Davis, who died as recently as 1801, has been closed off, assets declared at about 1 million dollars. The testamentaria of Mr. Muñoz Salvigni has been started, assets difficult to assess as there is a vast pile of crisis stocks.

The Finance Minister has ordered payment to the Chemical office of $19,000 to pay for Antiseptic apparatus.

The Finance Minister issued a decree to-day naming Dr. Chaverria, President of the Hypothecary Bank for two years.

Government has approved the transfer by the heirs of the late Mr. Adolfo Grünbein to the Bank of Antwerp of his rights to 274,676 hectares of land in Santa Cruz Territory, part of the 400 leagues sold to him by the State. The Contaduria will make up the accounts of the deceased with the government at 8 per cent discount yearly.

Surveyor Saubidet is to be paid $7,000 for measuring the Sampacho Colony.

The Finance Minister has named the personnel for the Graving Docks, with salaries varying from £500 a year and $200 a month down to $60 a month; and has also ordered $28,900 to be paid to the Movement Office of the Port for purchase of materials for the Graving Docks.

THE VICTORIA SAILORS' HOME.

The Queen Victoria Commemoration Committee have begun sending aorward the circular published at foot. ot is an appeal to all British subjects, to fll descendants of Britishers, and to all sympathisers, to subscribe for the erection If a memorial to commemorate an unique event in British History, and that memorial is to take the shape of a Sailors' Home—there would be no nobler tribute to the sovereign who rules the waves than a refuge for the toilers of the sea. In the loyal, charitable, unsectarian object let all join hands and answer the appeal according to their respective means.

Apart from the great event that the Memorial will commemorate at the gates of our city, within hail of the docks—there is in this resolution of the British residents to build a Sailors' Home a breadth of view, a field of action, that silences all differences, and must weld all the elements of the community into one common aspiration to see the generous idea immediately carried out. We have no doubt that all will respond to the charitable call, and help in the cause.

The following is the circular sent out by the Committee to the British residents and descendants of Britishers in the Republic:—

Commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of Queen Victoria's Accession.

COMMITTEE:

Hon. W. A. C. Barrington, Chairman.

T. S. Boadle.	W. F. Mulhall.
F. W. Barrow.	J. F. Roberts.
Ronald Bridgett.	John Russell.
John Dunn.	R. Inglis Runciman.
John Drysdale.	H. C. Thompson.
Rev. J. W. Fleming.	Rymer O. Watson.
P. Ham.	W. Warden.
A. Mackintosh.	J. C. Zimmermann.
H. M. Mills.

At the meeting held in Prince George's Hall on 21st April, 1897, a Committee was appointed to consider various schemes proposed for the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of the accession to the throne of Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

The Committee submitted its report to a general meeting held on 6th May, 1897, and recommended the following:—

1.—A congratulatory telegram to the Queen, and a request to employers to give their employees a holiday.

2.—A free entertainment at the Circus for children.

3.—Performance of the opera "H. M. S. Pinafore."

4.—The erection of a Sailors' Home as a permanent memento of the event, to be handed over to the Sailors' Home Committee on completion.

These proposals were adopted. The above Committee has been appointed to carry them into effect, and it now appeals to those who sympathise with the object for subscriptions to the fund required for the purpose.

The land for the proposed Sailors' Home has been granted by Congress free of charge and for the erection and furnishing of the building it is estimated that a sum of about $80,000 will be required. Statistics submitted to the Committee relative to the working of the present Home (the rent of which is $300 per month) show that with a more suitable building, free of rent and properly equipped, the institution would be almost self-supporting, so that, while it will be a lasting memento of an event which is unique in the history of the British Empire, it is not likely that there will be an increased call on the annual subcribers for its maintenance. Appended will be found a few particulars of the work done by the present Home.

It would be very appropriate were the fund completed by the 22nd of June, and the Committee will feel obliged if you will kindly fill up the annexed form and send it with the amount of your subscription to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. R. Inglis Runciman.

Subscriptions may be paid into the following Banks to the credit of "The Victoria Commemoration Fund," viz:—

The London & River Plate Bank.
The British Bank & South America.
The London & Brazilian Bank.
The Anglo-Argentine Bank.

William A. C. Barrington, Chairman.
J. W. Fleming, Secretary.

As the main purpose of the Committee is the erection of a Sailors' Home, they are providing for the entertainment at tea of British sailors in port at the present Sailors' Home.
